i have a blog here: and i think i can make it good. What are the best ways to revise: - Introduction. - Chapter 1. - Chapter 2. - Chapter 3. - Chapter 4. - Chapter 5. Help me to get some editor to check my text for spelling mistakes and grammatical errors. I need to revise my text and make it better. Hope you can help. A: The elements The elements that you are modifying are the sections Article I Crimes committed on Philippine and other ships. Article I-A. Crimes committed on Philippine and other ships - Sources of Philippine Criminal Law. Article I-B. Crimes committed on Philippine and other ships - Liability. Article I-C. Crimes committed on Philippine and other ships - Penalties Article II Crimes committed on Philippine and other ships. From the name of this website I will be making some assumptions about the first thing you want to work on. The first thing I think you want to modify is the introduction to Book II, particularly this part: A. The Revised Penal Code of the Philippines (RPC) is the codification of all the laws of the country. It is divided into two (2) volumes. The first volume is designated as "Book I". Title I, Volume I of Book I is designated as "Chapter I". This chapter contains the provisions of Chapters II through XX of Book I. The second volume is designated as "Book II". Title I, Volume II of Book II is designated as "Chapter I". This chapter contains the provisions of Chapters II through XXXV of Book II. As I read it, you should split the introduction to Book II in half and have an introduction that goes from A to B and then an intro that goes from B to C. There could be another intro right after each intro that introduces the next chapter or chapter of the book. There are also other issues I noticed in the introductory text. It says to join a local scuba club to learn to scuba dive. I wouldn't normally go on a dive without teaching myself how to scuba dive first but I also don't want to join a dive club that teaches only lessons and has a bunch of bullshit clubs. There are also a bunch of other stylistic issues
